

HARVARD PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

BENEFIT FROM MBS'S COOPERATION WITH HDCE

Boost your MBS "Flagship Courses" with an online program and a Certificate of Participation from the Harvard Division of Continuing Education (HDCE). For each of your "Flagship Courses" you can optionally add an online Harvard Professional Development Program (HPDP) as an MBA student. The program selection is updated every semester and is specially adapted to the contents of the "Flagship Courses". In this way, participants can optimally complement and deepen their knowledge acquired at MBS and enrich it with additional perspectives.

Benefits for MBS Students

 Deepen your Knowledge
Deepen your knowledge based on the completed MBS "Flagship Courses" with the HDCE programs.

 Harvard- HDCE Certificate
Add a HDCE certificate to your resume after successfully completing your program.

 Harvard Extension Alumni Association Events
Receive the opportunity after completion of the Certificate of Leadership Excellence (completion of four of the designated programs within 18 months) to get invitations to world-wide Harvard Extension Alumni Association events.

 Digital Social Badge
Add your digital social badge to your LinkedIn profile after successfully completing your program.

 30% Discount
Receive a discount of 30% on all offered HDCE programs through the MBS cooperation.

"This agreement between our two institutions is a great opportunity for professionals to enhance their skills and take the next step in their career development. We are excited for MBS students to experience the breadth and expertise of our Professional Development Programs and combine that knowledge to enhance their potential."

"Acquiring valuable knowledge and growing as a person are central to our MBA program. We achieve this not only thanks to the teaching staff on our MBA course, who bring decades of leadership experience with them into the seminar room, but also through suitable partnerships with business, our alumni, and other outstanding universities. With the MBS Boost Option, we are giving our MBA students a unique opportunity to access the programs offered by the Division of Continuing Education at Harvard University and thus advance their careers."
